Nursing and Rehabilitation Center

About Us

Golden Hill Nursing and Rehabilitation Center is a CMS 5-star rated 280-bed skilled nursing facility in Kingston, NY, with both private and semi-private rooms, which services Ulster and surrounding counties. For the past fifty years we have been servicing our community as both a subacute rehabilitation facility and as a long-term care center.

We excel in caring for a variety of patients and residents with cardiac monitoring, post-acute care, subacute rehabilitation, long term care, and memory care with highly trained medical staff and a full complement of physical, occupational, music, and art therapies.
